Church Life Updates

- Gleaning Ahead: Many at Calvary will remember the gleaning project we did a while back that allowed us to bag and distribute several thousand pounds of potatoes to area food banks and ministries. We have been notified by our gleaning partner – the Society of St. Andrew – that there will be similar opportunities available later this summer. However, in order to participate we will need a volunteer who has a pick-up truck that can pull a small trailer and who would be willing to travel as far as Greensboro or Charlotte to pick up a pallet of produce and bring it back to Calvary. If you have a truck and are open to the possibility of serving in this way, please contact Pastor Alex (pastoralex4@gmail.com) or Doud Odell (dougodell@pvh.com).
- Coming Soon: Message Series on Heaven Pastor Alex plans to begin a new sermon series titled “Heaven: Finding Our Hearts’ True Home” on Sunday, July 23. If you have friends who might be interested in these messages, we encourage you to invite them to worship with us. And if you’ve got questions about heaven that you’ve never had a chance to ask, you’re encouraged to send them to Pastor Alex by email (pastoralex4@gmail.com) – or by writing them in the “Church Space” portion of your bulletin tear-off and dropping it in the offering plate.
- Prayers for Belize Mission: The Mission Team departed this morning to travel to Copper Bank. Please continue to lift them up in prayer throughout the week. If you would like to lift up individuals by name, you can pray for...
